

HUMILITY IS GOLD

PURPOSE OF THE GROUP:

Groups are essential to finding authentic community and spiritual growth. A group is where you are “known” and you grow. It’s as simple as ABC: Accountability, Belonging and Care.

YOUR PERSONAL ROLE:

Listen to the weekend message (at church or online). Show up consistently for group meetings. Be authentic while in the group meeting. CONSISTENCY + AUTHENTICITY = COMMUNITY (What we are all longing for)

CHECKING IN QUESTION:

Are you the type of person who tries to fix things immediately, lets them sit for a while, or just replaces them? (objects or relationships)

Big Idea: Repairing broken relationships is not intuitive or natural, but it is essential. While our natural response doesn’t work, Jesus calls us to take a different approach—one of humility, initiative, and removing obstacles to reconciliation. Though we can't force reconciliation, we can take responsibility for our part by pursuing peace, creating space for healing, and ensuring we have no regrets in our relationships.

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT:

1. The C4 Approach to Relationship Repair is common but ineffective. Which of the four C's did your parents reach for first? Convince? Convict? Coerce? Control? How did that play out for you?
2. What's your initial reaction to the idea that reconciliation begins with us, regardless of who initiated the fuss?
3. Is your response to a strained relationship usually "I will get back at" or "I will get back to"?
4. Read (Click to Read) Romans 12:10. What key words stand out to you? Who could you show more honor to and in what way?
5. Read (Click to Read) Romans 12:14-17 What key words stand out to you? What comes to mind in that passage as something you need to pay attention to?
6. The message highlighted the prayer, "Heavenly Father, help me to see _____ the way You do." How could praying this prayer shift your mindset toward someone you struggle to forgive?
7. The relational decision of moving "back to" rather than "back at." What is one practical step you can take this week to move toward reconciliation, even if it's just in your heart to begin with.

HOW CAN THE GROUP PRAY FOR YOU THIS WEEK?
